Juror - Raye Anne Marks oil painter, private instructor.

Raye Anne Marks moved to San Diego 20 years ago and began to study art seriously with Spanish master Sebastian Capella. She now assists in teaching his classes as well as leading private classes of her own. Marks developed a Bravura style of painting in bold and luminous colors; her work is characterized by bold, simple patterns of lights and darks, and paint applied with directness. Marks has won numerous awards including 1st and 2nd place in the Del Mar Fair in 2006 and two 1st place for oil portrait and landscape as well as three honorable mentions. She has served in several local art organizations including La Jolla Art Association, Rancho Santa Fe Art Guild, San Diego Portrait Society, and the San Diego Museum of Art Artist Guild.
